

Nikken's Diary Was An Forgery!

A key part of the evidence from Nikken's side in the Seattle Prostitute case was Nikken's pocket diary. In the diary it was written that Nikken went to bed in his hotel at 1:00 am. This contradicts the testimony of Soka Gakkai side which claimed that Nikken was having trouble with two Seattle prostitutes at 2:00 am.

Now, new discoveries were made that this pocket diary was altered at a later date. This was done by two American experts in the field of graphoanalysis, Mr. Spekeen and Mr. Moore. Mr. Spekeen measured the dent of the diary paper by pen-point pressure using a special microscope. He found that the writing of Nikken "Let's go to bed. 1:00 am." (actually it was written as 1 pm, but Nikken said he was sleepy and misspelled) was added later. These writings pushed down the letters on the opposite page, and this could only happen when Nikken altered the diary at a later date.

Mr. Moore used a light beam through a special filter and analyzed the property of the ink. He found that the property of the ink with which Nikken wrote, "Let's go to bed. 1:00 am." was different from any other ink used for his diary. This proved that Nikken added this part at a later date to cheat the court.

Nikken preached in March 1988 at a guidance meeting for non-instructors of Nichiren Shoshu, "An important point of Honesty is not to cover-up." In December 1988, at the opening ceremony of Emyoji, Nikken said, "I strongly believe that Honesty is the basic foundation of morality."

What Nikken has been doing is exactly the opposite. He has been cheating every body.

(Translated from February 17, 1999 issue of Soka Shimpo)